Thanksgiving

The year has turned its circle

The seasons come and go.

The harvest all is gathered in

The chilly north winds blow.

Orchards have shared their treasures,

The fields, their yellow grain,

So open wide the doorway,

Thanksgiving comes again!

Melissa's Musings:

Did you know...

Male turkeys gobble. Hens do not. They make a clucking noise.

Notes from the Nurse

We are asking families to provide plastic mattress covers for their loved one's bed to protect the mattress if/when accidents occur. Please remember, if you bring in any over-the-counter medication or mail-ordered medication, take them to the Med. Room for the staff person in charge. Residents cannot have any medicine in their apartments.

Also, if you are planning on taking a loved one out, please give our Nursing Dept. 24 hours notice so they can have any paper work and/or medication ready to go along with them. Thank you!

Thanksgiving Day

Thanksgiving morning, from 9 am-12pm we will be watching the Macy's

Thanksgiving Day Parade in the activity room.

At Noon, we will be enjoying a traditional Thanksgiving meal after which the Detroit Lions vs. Green Bay Packer's football game will be showing in the activity room. After dinner, we will be watching Charlie Brown's Thanksgiving in the activity room.

Wanted: Recipes and CDs

We are still in need of any recipes that your loved one here at Arbor Woods may have enjoyed. It could be something they used to make a lot, or perhaps just a dessert they enjoyed eating even if they were not the one to make it. Our Baking Club would like to put together a fun recipe book with the submitted recipes. Just send your recipes to Melissa@arborwoodsliving.com.

Also, next month we are starting a craft group where we only reuse things for another purpose in creating a craft. If you have any old CDs lying around that you no longer need, please drop them off to Melissa in the activity room and be sure to check out our facebook page to see what we end up making with the CDs!

Featured Activity: Nail Trims and Manicures

If you haven't heard, we have a wonderful manicurist Dawn, who comes in to volunteer her services every Thursday morning, between 9am and 12pm. To ensure everyone gets their nails done when needed we will be scheduling appointments starting in November. Melissa will let you know what week your appointment is and approximate time. If you are not able to make the appointment we will reschedule it for the following week. Please talk to Melissa if you have any questions about the nail schedule. Thank you!
